OPERANTICS

sydneycare

PRESENT: ST MATTHEW PASSION

In partnership with St Stephen's Uniting Church and Sydney Care, Operantics is excited to present Bach's thrilling S*t Matthew Passion,* in collaboration with conductor Luke Spicer, for its first ever production with orchestra. Led by Artistic Director and soprano, Katie Miller Crispe - Operantics aims to provide a platform for developing and emerging Australian artists to gain invaluable performance experience in operatic performance.

A vibrant young company, Operantics has presented two Australian premieres, as well as eight staged operas and concerts featuring more than fifty young artists and creatives since 2015. This year - Operantics is moving into an exciting period of growth, presenting a more varied program of works including oratorio and more intimate recitals alongside its main stage productions.

Operantics is excited to partner with local charity, Sydney Care to perform this oratorio for a fabulous cause - supporting their substantial work through the power of music and in the historic St Stephen's Uniting Church.

'The St Matthew Passion is a truly dramatic telling of the victory of hope, courage and faith over betrayal, fear and doubt. It is in every sense, passionate, in its music, in its inspiration and in its depth of emotion. We are all of us privileged to be bringing it to life!'
- Tristan Entwistle (Artistic Advisor).

Two performances at St Stephen's Uniting Church, Macquarie Street, Sydney.

Dates: April 7th and 8th (2.30pm)

Tickets: $20-40

Bookings: https://www.trybooking.com/UIDS

Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/operanticsaustralia/

Contact: Katie Miller-Crispe, contact@operantics.com.au

Website: www.operantics.com.au

Image: John Kilkeary